off further questioning on this by saying "I assume your answer to the previous question also applies here." [] replied that was correct. I asked Sourwine if [] identified the CIA representative to the Subcommittee later and Sourwine said he had not but assumed he would identify this individual to us if we asked him.

2. (Secret - GLC) Frank Schroeder, another member of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, mentioned to me that the Subcommittee had received information to the effect that the Communists were counterfeiting American currency in Latin America and Africa and he added that if we had any information on this the Subcommittee would be most interested.

3. (Internal Use Only - GLC) I left for Mr. William Darden, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, a copy of Mr. Helms' testimony before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.
